“ I will miss one of my good friends. He was a gentleman, good dancer, friend, spontaneous, loved life and family. Dana was a fighter but he knew Jesus Christ as his Saviour. Dana is now with his Savior trying to convince Him to allow Keno in heaven. Dana and I become good friends in his last year of life. I was privileged to have him live with me during his recuperating. A gentleman and friend will be missed terribly. His smile will live forever. Goodbye my dear friend. I will see you one day in heaven. Charlene Dine

“ Another wonderful memory of Dana popped into my head this morning as I watched the snow falling. Around this time last year, when we had the big snowstorm, Dana met me, my granddaughters & son in Edgewater at a community with a large slope where probably 40 adults & children were tobogganing and sledding. We were all bundled up in winter attire and here comes Dana Cady walking across the icy packed snow.....in his dress shoes & dress pants looking like a movie star! My son & I exchanged glances and starting laughing. My son said "I want to be just like him!" Dana joined us on the slopes as elegantly dressed as he was. He laughed and smiled, and it was one of the many best days we shared. I wish there could have been more! Memories keep those you love in your heart FOREVER!

“ My Duckpin Bowling partner for many, many years. I met Dana at the Suitland Bowling lanes and we became partners since the year 1987. We traveled together to different bowling houses, from West Virginia, Virginia and Maryland. At the time he got sick we were leading the current 2015 bowling league at White Oak, Maryland.

I bought several used cars from him and still drive one of those. He was the best, a very honest use car dealer. A great human been.

Happy trails my friend. Until we again.

“ I miss you, I miss those hilarious stories, beautiful smile and kind words. I can remember having a melt down the weekend before homecoming because I didnt have a dress and grandma couldn't drive me to the mall so you took grandma and I and helped me pick out my dress. What uncles do that? YOU! why? because you rocked! Ari will always hear about you and all of the wonderful things you have done in your life and how much you loved her even though her uncle/god father is in heaven she will always know she has a guardian angel looking over her. I love you, always will like I told you during your last days with us and I promise I will do what you said I will get that big prize. Don't worry, rest easy I will take care of grandma she misses you tons and her heart is broken but I will help her get through this. Miss you.

“ I met Dana in 2012 at the Bowie Elks Club with the hand dancers. He was extremely shy and full of anxiety, rarely smiling. I teased him about that and gave him a smiley face sticker, which is probably still in his wallet. Dana grew on me and touched my heart with his gentle caring nature in a way no one else has. I was his "Princess" and he was my Pooh Bear and best friend. For two years we were dance partners, dancing at least 4 times a week. Sometimes we would go bowling on Friday nights after the dance and bowl until 1:00 in the morning. He supported me through a flood catastrophe in my condo this time last year. I couldn't have gotten through it without him. We had our ups and downs but mostly good memories, like sitting on the beach eating chicken wraps and walking at Quiet Waters. I will miss Dana's smile, his hugs and back rubs and especially the way he twirled me. We will dance again on the ballroom floor in heaven. He's probably polishing it right now - He was such a cleaning fanatic! He did not deserve to suffer the way he did and fought for his life until the bitter end. I am grateful I was able to spend time with him in the hospital. My condolences to his family and all who loved Dana. I love you Pooh Bear! Hugs!

“ *I took a hand dance class with Dana at Louise Pyles' studio. At that time he was somewhat unsure of himself as a dancer, as was I (I still am). My first impression was what a gentle, nice man he was. My fondest memory was my only year of attending Meet Me at the Beach in Ocean City, MD. It was a Friday night and we had just arrived at Seacrets for the mixer and he was the first one to ask me to dance. Dana worked hard and became a very good dancer. I will miss him.
