“ Danny and I were friends when we both lived in Green Park, MD. We had a million adventures around the neighborhood and were always in an out of each others home. With my sister Sandra Fetter, Danny Tanya and Jimmy Lafferty... we were in paradise. We explored nearby woods... and did the typical kid stuff... as well as watching BATMAN together. I miss you brother.

“ I am at a loss. I feel terrible for how soon you were taken from us. For selfish reasons I try to find comfort that you are relieved of your physical pain.

A quick story about Dan and myself.

I remember the time I was meeting up with Dorothy at her parents house and I arrived before she did. This was early in our relationship together and still a little awkward between myself and her father, despite already meeting Dan on several occasions with Dorothy. We all know that Dan was more of a quiet person and now I am at his domain waiting for his daughter.

Well, I am sitting outside in my truck and Dorothy calls me and tells me that her dad said to come inside the house and I did not have to wait outside. I picked up on the relief in her voice as she told me. I went inside and Dan didn't grill me about dating his daughter, he simply invited me into his house and told me to make myself comfortable. We shared small talk about work and probably sports. He must have seen that I was going to be a permanent fixture in his daughter's life and I was beginning to be accepted into the family. While this interaction may seem trivial or cliché to some, it was a pivotal moment in our relationship.

The memories we had will always be with me. Your love for your grandchildren is deeply felt in them.

You will be missed dearly by all of us,

Bobby
