*You created a fine young man! Your son was our pool tech and always had a kind smile. I am so sorry for your loss, pain and just having to endure it all. I am scouring thru my phone for a video clip of him helping/educating me on my pool system, if I find it I will get it to you. Again, just know you raised a great young man and I pray for your aching heart. Much love to you and your family, The Napoli's
