“ I have fond memories of all the Kimbark Ave. kids hanging out in/around the Clark house back in the day. Danna would come out of her bedroom every now again, and get so excited to see everybody and be a part of the 'party'. I always remember the happiness on her face and in her body language when she was joining in as 'one of the gang'. She was definitely one of the sweetest and lovable human beings I've ever known. God Bless Danna, and my sincere condolences to the entire Clark family members. - Ted Fraber
