

Danny Clark Jones

April 30, 1945 - November 13, 2024

With a deep sense of sorrow and loss, our family announces the passing of Danny “Dan” Clark Jones on Wednesday, November 13th, 2024.

Danny “Dan” Clark Jones was born April 30th, 1945, to Arthur Vernon Jones and Roberta Ruth Addison Jones in Knox, Texas. His family moved to California where he graduated from South High School in 1962. Upon graduating, Dan served in the US Navy (honorably discharged in 1969), and he later married on December 31st, 1965.

Dan began his career as a graphic artist in 1975 with the Federal Government and later became Executive Dean, Office of Learning, and Information Technologies at Coastline Community College where he was instrumental in forming a language arts program between China and the United States.

During his career he was the recipient of a presidential award, AVA and Aurora awards, multiple Emmy awards as well as other awards in educational film prior to retiring in 2014. Danny earned his Associates, bachelor’s, and master’s Degree.
