“ Mitch and I are so saddened to hear of Dave's passing. He was a friend of Mitch's from school, and I had the pleasure of becoming friends with Dave in 1981 (date of picture here, and with J.R. below). We had a lot of fun in those days, as the Taylor family mentioned. Eventhough we only got to see Dave every few years, it was like nothing ever changed between us. Dave was a great person, super nice, and handsome, too. We will all miss him dearly, and he will remain in our hearts forever. Our deepest sympathy and prayers to the family.

Our condolences,

Mitch and Tracy Doricich - Upper St. Clair, PA

“ I was devastated to hear of Dave's death. My brother J.R. and Dave were the best of friends from the time they were about 14 years old. They were inseparable, both of them so handsome and mischevious. I shake my head and smile when I think of some of the things those two did in their younger years. My family loved Dave. We too lost J.R. very suddenly. Our hearts are breaking right along with yours. Be assured of our prayers for youprayers for healing and comfort and strength now and in the difficult days ahead . I sense a strange kind of peace knowing that the two of them are together again . . . albeit way too soon.
With deepest heartfelt sympathy,
Darlaine Taylor
