“ Jim, Colin and Cory - I've know and loved your Wife/Mom since her Jr. High School days through our Daughter, Laura, as they were such close friends. My Husband, Jim, and I spent a lot of time together at our farm in Brandywine with her and Laura, horse shows during the summer and we had such fun. She is in a peaceful place, pain is gone and she's back visiting her Mom and Dad. You and your family are in our prayers. Lovingly, Jim and Gwen Newcomb

“ Good bye, dear friend. I will miss your smiling face and gentle ways. I will carry you in my heart as always and forever, along with the memories and laughter we shared. Thanks for eating my lima beans (yuck) that Mom so caringly put on my plate and always agreeing to go to Wig Wam! May you rest peacefully, until we meet again.

My deepest condolences to Jim, Colin, Corey. Please know you also have a special place in my heart and I embrace you with my thoughts and prayers.
