

Deborah Julia Mangino

October 14, 1941 - December 9, 2024

Deborah Julia Mangino, 83, of Pomfret, MD, passed away at her residence on December 9, 2024.

Deborah was born in Philadelphia, PA on October 14, 1941 to the late Angelina (Rotondaro) and Angelo Mangino.

Deborah was proudly born and raised in South Philly, where if according to Deborah you were not in South Philly, you were in the suburbs. Deborah who never married or formerly worked herself, dedicated her adult life to caring for her aging mother until the time of her passing. Deborah progressively lost her own eyesight and was brought to Maryland where she happily lived out the last two and a half years of her life with her loving nephew Daniel and his family. She was a Kind, caring, and compassionate individual who never had a negative word to say about anyone.

In addition to her parents, she is preceded in death by her siblings; Anthony Mangino, Joseph Mangino, Dominick Mangino, Frank Mangino, and Marie Sutton.

A private Inurnment will take place in the spring of 2025 at Holy Cross Cemetery, 626 Baily Road, Yeadon, PA 19050.

Cemetery Details

Holy Cross Cemetery

626 Baily Road
Yeadon, PA 19050

Tribute Wall

TT

“ I thought of Debbie (that's what we called her) every time I pass through our old neighborhood. I lived 2 doors away. Our grandparents were from the same town in Italy. She was older than us but she spent a lot of time with my neighbors and I, telling stories and keeping us busy with games. So intelligent, kind and funny. She loved her family so much and though this is so sad, it warms my heart that she was cared for by them. God bless her and all of her family.

Tina Trantas - December 14, 2024 at 09:16 PM

BM

*I will miss our Sunday phone calls Aunt Debbie!
I love you so much and know that you are with our Lord and grand mom and All the rest of the families*

Bruce Mangino - December 17, 2024 at 03:28 PM