

Debra Joan Callahan

December 17, 2016

Debra “Debbie” Callahan passed away unexpectedly on December 17, 2016. She is survived by her husband Jim of 30 years, daughters Emily and Kathryn, grandchildren Stella and Caleb, brother Fred, and sister Cindy (both of California).

Debbie was born in Mountain Home, Idaho and spent most of her childhood traveling the country and world as part of a military family. She eventually called the Annapolis area her home. Debbie spent 25 years working as a paralegal for the Chief Judge of the Seventh Circuit and a mediator for the Prince George’s County court system. In addition, she was a member of the Maryland Bar Association. Over the course of her life, Debbie enjoyed her many passions including: traveling with her husband Jim and family, entertaining, sewing, creating beautiful quilts, collecting and restoring antiques for her business and volunteering her time to organizations and those in need. She will be always remembered as a loving wife, mother, grandmother, sister, aunt, cousin and friend. Debbie’s greatest passion of all was helping others and bringing happiness to their lives.

A celebration of life will be held Sunday, January 8, 2017 at Swan Point Yacht and Country Club starting at 1:00 pm.

In lieu of flowers, the family asks you to bring a story to share.

She leaves us rich in memories. Her smile and grace will remain with us forever.

“ Debbie was a special lady who took the time and energy to teach a lot of us here in Swan Point how to Quilt. She was always patient even when our quilts looked like something she would NEVER quilt. Love and peace to Jim, Emily and Katie. God bless, Bobbi Caron
