“ Debbie was the most sweetest and kindest person we had the privilege of having for a friend. She was selfless and put others happiness before her own. Her laugh was contagious and she always lit up the room with a smile. She was a treasured friend who we will miss immensely and will remember fondly. Our deepest sympathies and prayers go out to her family, significant other, Gary, and all her friends. Jessey, Buttons Rose and family

“ My sincere condolences to all of Deb's family for your heart-wrenching loss. Debbie was definitely "one of a kind", sweet as molasses and tough as nails. Although she was a petite little lady, she could hob knob with the rich, line dance with the best of them, and get up at 4am to go deer hunting with the guys, and all in 24 hours! Although the sadness of her passing is devastating, as she passed through The Gates, image her sheer joy when she saw Andrea there with open arms and beautiful smile of hers. I'm sure Deb and Andrea will have plenty of stories to tell of their adventures beyond The Gates as each one of us finally catch up with them! Until we meet again - Holly DiGiovanni

“ Debbie was a sweet young lady and a very hard worker. We met her through our brother, Garry Thompson, her partner for 20 years. He loved her deeply and was by her side from diagnosis to her passing. His heart is shattered. We will all miss her and her beautiful heart.
