“ From the Corporate Operations Department, Aegis BMD, Dahlgren, VA:

For Deb’s friends and coworkers in Dahlgren, her sudden passing was both a terrible shock and a sharp reminder that our time together is fleeting. Less than two weeks before her passing, we set up a potluck retirement luncheon for Monday, 18 May. We were eager to see her on that date -- to see her ear-to-ear grin, hear her tell some good stories, and appreciate her good company. With wounded hearts, we gathered as planned on 18 May to honor Deb and to cherish our memories of her. Just a few thoughts to share: Deb epitomized kindness -- her smile was warm, soothing, contagious, 100% genuine. Deb was both wise and keenly intelligent -- her advice was never ignored by the prudent. She thrived on (and perhaps relished) the challenge presented by those “drop everything,” seemingly unprecedented crisis moments and almost always turned doom into relief ... because if Deb Doll could not fix it, nobody else could, so there was no use trying! She was selfless, humble, witty, funny, adorable, tough, honest, ethical, and unafraid. So much more could be written, but please know that we are extremely grateful that we had the opportunity to work with her and to get to know her as a friend over the last five years. We grieve along with those who love her -- we know her sweet soul endures. In Dahlgren, we will never forget her ...

“ I was saddened to hear of Deb's passing this week. She was a terrific woman, always willing to help with a smile on her face and lets not forget--a great story to tell while she was helping you. I am reminded by her passing how short and tenuous life is--to be only a few weeks out from retirement. Everytime I saw Deb in the hallways at work she told me how many days she had remaining until retirement and how excited she was to start the next chapter of her life. Very sad. For her family and friends, I wish you comfort in this difficult time of loss. For the MDA DOH team and her MDA friends, I am truly sorry for your loss. May you find some confort and peace in your memories of your friendship with Deb. Nancy Morgan

“ *OMG!
I am so hurt right now. What a wonderful person. She always gave me a lot of lip. However she was my best colleague at MDA. I was just informed as of 0520 pm today.
I guess GOD needed some help organizing something in heaven. I know GOD does not make any mistakes. However I am going to miss Debbie.

“ The world is a little less kinder now without Debbie Doll. I met Debbie over 25 years ago, shortly after I met my husband. My impression then and always was she was so kind, nice and real. You could always count on her. Not to many people are dependable, she was. She loved life, her pets and people. If you had the honor of meeting her, your heart will forever be touched by her touching you. She created a place in the hearts and lives of all who met her. We may not have been close as she was to others, but she was a staple in the family. The memories she helped create will linger on in many hearts and minds. Fly away little one, fly away home and be at peace. DeRue Swann

“ I know there is nothing I can do or say to ease the pain in this time of sorrow, but please know I care and share the sadness on the loss of such a wonderful and caring person as Debby Doll. She was a bright and shining star who enhanced the morale and quality of life for MDA employees. When called upon to assist with a human resources issue, she worked tirelessly to ensure a positive outcome for the requester. All those who knew Debby will miss her terribly. Her positive attitude, easy-going, down-to-earth nature, her smile and her frequent laughter were all infectious. Please accept my sincere and heartfelt condolences. My thoughts and prayers are with Debby's family and friends as we all navigate through this difficult time.

Very respectfully,

Donna Hirabayashi

“ I will always remember Debbie at Jazzercise at the Capitol Clubhouse. She had a way of bringing a smile to your face and always talked to everyone, making them feel comfortable and at home. She always made me laugh and put a smile on my face whenever I saw her. Heaven has a special person there right now....cracking everyone up and making them smile.

“ Deb was always passionate about people and serving others. She personally made a huge difference in my life when she, without hesitation, spent many hours helping me work through the gov't approvals/paperwork needed for my family to adopt a beautiful little girl. With Deb's help, we were able to complete the adoption and bring our daughter home last December. Thank you, Deb, for your kindness and compassion. You inspired us all. Rest in peace, my friend.

“ Deb was an awesome human being! She was so friendly, kind, and easy to talk to. We discussed life as well as work during our frequent hallway chats. Her perspective was so refreshing because she saw situations as opportunities to be taken advantage of and never as obstacles to stop you. I still can't believe she is no longer here with us, but she has a greater home now. My thoughts and prayers go out to her family. She will be greatly missed!

“ Deb was a cubicle neighbor of ours and a frequent drive by drop in. She was a unique human being: very down to earth and not afraid to speak her mind. She was one of a kind. I will miss hearing her over the wall or down the hall. She was the "go to" person for anything in the human resource area and she was always willing to help. None of us knows why God calls when he does, but I am sure she is comfortable in her new adventure.

“ I will miss Deb and all of our hallway chats. May God grant her family and friends strength, comfort, and peace during this difficult time. It will be very difficult not to see Deb stop by my cubicle just to say hello or give me the latest news around the organization. As everyone said previously, Deb had a unique wit that was hilarious and although she wasn't afraid to be very frank and straight to the point, you always knew that she was always looking out for your best interest. As soon as I came on board with the government, Deb was right there, telling me what to do to make sure my future was set for when it would be my turn to retire. She always lived life to the fullest and I truly admired her for that. She was so excited to begin a new chapter in her life in retirement and it hurts my heart that she wasn't able to fulfill her plans here on earth. But God had another plan in mind and God realized how truly special she is and decided that Deb would become a valuable addition to a heavenly team. Can you see Deb now taking care of all the new angels coming into heaven? I can. And I only hope that I will see Deb again when it's my turn to be called. Rest in peace, Deb. You will truly be missed!

“ I liked her from the first time I met her. She was genuine, what you saw was really what she was. She was not afraid to be herself. She had such confidence and was so sure of who she was. She was intelligent, and had such a sharp wit about her. She would put you in your place in a minute, and give you the shirt off her back the next. She was just so much damn fun to be around. Always, I mean always the life of the party. Her laughter was contagious. I had the privilege of being Debbie's friend for the past 20 years or so. We met through Jazzercise. We had so many fun times together. We went to so many conventions together, cruise to Bermuda, New Orleans and many Ocean City trips. I could go on and on about Deb, but there isn't enough room here. She was a dear friend, the most loyal kind and I will miss her so much!

Debbie and I became friend almost the moment we met, she was one of those people that could talk to anyone and she knew everyone. She said it like it was and didn't sugar coat things, I liked that about her. We had so much fun working out at Jazzercise, going on girls weekend trips or just hanging out at the pool in the summer. Debbie was an amazing person and I am so thankful that I was able to call you my dear friend, I will miss you so very much, this is just not fair that you were taken from us to soon. RIP

I am shocked and saddened to learn of Debbie's death. I mourn that she was not able to enjoy the retirement she was so looking forward to and had worked to hard to earn. Debbie was a character who didn't suffer fools and told it like it is. She also would work tirelessly to help you solve a problem. She made me smile everytime we met. She was taken from us way to soon.

Still in shock. Debbie was a character from the first time I met her. While I was TDY in VA back in 2007/08, she made arrangements to take me out to lunch with the office. Something she didn't have to do, but wanted to. It was that day we built a friendship that extended to many discussions about our dog babies. Anytime I called for help with some report or other issue, she was there and would do all she could to make it happen. You'll be sorely missed, Ms. Deb. Alesia B

*Deborah Doll,
You went away too suddenly and just before you were ready to settle down and enjoy all that you had worked so hard for on this side of heaven. Don't know whether to be upset with you or be jealous, so I had a talk with the fellows. Actually, you were given an even better plan, which was an early retirement plan that is better than thrift savings or 401k. It's better than silver or gold or all the treasures that this world holds. It's a plan that folk sometimes don't understand, the one that comes from the man, up above, God Almighty, He called you home, and now you bask in His arms and His love. Rest on my friend.*

Peace and blessings,

I will miss Debbie so much. She stopped by to see me almost daily and we would share a good laugh. It was very important to her that we updated our annual TSP information. She took the time to personally visit each person and helped us make the necessary changes to ensure we received the maximum benefits. She was very selfless and self confident and I enjoyed her so much! She was definitely a light that will continue to shine in the MDA hallways.
