“ *Dee and I graduated from La Plata High School, class of 1967. I always enjoyed being friends with her. She used to give me a ride to school in her little car (Renault ?) which frequently broke down. Such a fun senior year! And her mom Camille was my hairdresser. My condolences to the family. I had the pleasure of working with Dee for several years and we became very close, I will always remember her as a good person, and every time I hear the song everlasting love, I think about how we use to sing and dance to it. Rest in peace my friend.

*Love,
Audrey Chase*
