“ Richard, Johnny and Cris, We are so very sorry to hear that Denise passed away. She is shared in many memories of the children as they grew up in Robie Manor.....go cart races, walks with Mr. Robie in the evening and many other memories that are part of childrearing and life. I would occasionally see her at the mall with one of the grandchildren and marvel how she never lost her looks. She was a great gal and now sorely missed. “ *To Denise's Family,
What a wonderful example of family pulling together to support and care for Denise.
There is much to be learned from all of you and especially from Denise;
she was such a good example for us in how she lived as well as how she died.
A caring woman with so much dignity. What a lady!*

“ Denise, my dear sister, you have left us much, much too soon. As the eldest two, you and I paved the way through childhood for the rest of our brood. You let me play the big brother but there was never a doubt who had the better handle on all life's challenges from child's play through teenage heartache and on to adulthood and parenthood. For all of us, I think, you were the steady influence, the beacon of light, the "go-to" sibling for sound advice and, in recent years, for an example of how to battle for life with grace and dignity. Now you can rest in peace.
