“ Someone once said that only the good die young. Whomever made that statement must have had a man like Donnie Busl in mind. To the Busl family especially Tom, hold your heads up and remember that your brother, son, father, uncle, and friend will forever watch over you all. My thoughts and prayers are with you all.

“ Donnie I remember the first day we met and when we sat in front of the firehouse drinking coffee and watching the views on Georgia Ave. and even up to when you got stuck on the medic unit with me how much fun we had and I have learned a lot from you, the one thing I will always remember if you don't want the truth don't ask me. I remember the time I was low and depressed you some how came up and made one of you famous comments, to this day it still makes me smile. rest well my friend you will be missed but we will take it from here.

“ It's hard to believe that Donnie has gone on to a better place. This summer the Volunteer softball tournament be the same with you you brother. Watching you run around the bases trying to hold your shorts up or you sitting on the hill with your beer in your hand hollering down at us on the field. Donnie rest easy brother we have it from here. DCFD and PG Volunteers for life.

“ How Do U Measure A Man? By the style of his character? The unforgetful friends he has made? The way he walks or even talks? The brotherhood or love he has in his heart ? The obstacles he has overcome and the victories he has won. My brother & friend you are beyond every measure of a true firefighter and a lot of memories that will never fade! One of a kind and designed with pride! Captain Jackson The Mighty Truck 17 #3 Platoon. Blessing to u & your family!

“ I can truly say it was an honor to know you Donnie and to call you friend. I enjoyed my time at E-22 and could not have asked for a better assistant when it came to ALS. Nobody ever knew what you were going to come up with from one second to the next. Very witty and fast with the returns, but when it came down to it everyone was an equal to you. You Donnie are a fireman's fireman.

Rest my friend
