“ Been a year since you left us, and yet it feels like forever. We miss you more than you would ever believe. Nobody to yell at....lol So many amazing and fun memories I think of almost daily. Wednesday night dinners weekly. Every week after we'd pick you guys up, conversation was the same: YOU: So where to tonight....US: doesn't matter, whatever you feel like....YOU: well, we picked last time, so it's your turn....US: OK, how about Chinese Buffet.....YOU: no, I don't like that place. LOL We would always settle on a place we all wanted.. Such great memories. Miss you so very much and need to hear that laugh again. Love you Don!

“ I first met Don Sr. when my good friend Don, Jr. Suggested I call him when my young family took vacation in Washington DC. He said his dad could get us tickets to tour the White House. Not only did he get us tickets for the WH but he also arranged FBI and congressional tours for us. He had us meet him at his office and we had a lot of laughs at son Don's expense. We stayed friends all this time and he would always try to visit me when he would come to Florida. He was a wonderful man and friend and I'll miss him. God bless you Don?

“Wow, where to start..... it all started about 25 or 26 years ago, when you walked into Dick's TV repair shop. You all had an instant friendship that has lasted over 30 years. You always considered my kids and grandkids family and attended all of our special events.....birthday parties, graduation parties, retirement parties. Your Wednesday night "guys night out" went on for about 20 years until Lois and I intruded and joined in and went with you guys. Every Wednesday over 20 some years is a lot of dinners, laughs, hugs, tears, and love. When we moved to DE a year ago, we missed our weekly dinners. Don, you are a special special person. You made every person you came in contact with, feel very special. You had a rare gift. Through our tears, we laugh as we remember some of the great times and laughs we had. You even came with us last year to Colin's school for "Grandparents Day", which is a day he will treasure always. Friday is grandparents day and he didn't want to go to school. He is very sad and missing you already, even though he's only 10. You always speak of DJ needing a chair to stand on to play the Pac Man game at Napolis when he was 4 and he is now 19 and he remembers those special times and how much you meant to him. I speak for all of our girls and our grandkids when I say Rest in Peace "Mr Don", you have earned it. We will all miss you like crazy but know that you are watching over all of your friends. Love you!!

“ Don was a very dear friend to me while I worked at Civista Medical Center. I hot to know Lois and the family. Zack worked fir me one summer. I loved having lunch with Don. He always made me laugh and had sage advice. Don didn't do well with needle stick and I quickly learned to lay him down to start an IV. I can share that because it was quite the joke between us.

My heartfelt love goes out to Lois because I know you have lost your soulmate. Don was always talking about you with great love in his eyes.

My prayers and thought are with you.
