

Brier Levi Perry

August 2, 2000 - August 11, 2024

Donavon Brier Levi Perry, 24 of Nanjemoy Maryland passed on August 11, 2024. He was the son of Nolan and Doris (Ryce) Perry, born to them on August 02, 2000 in Maryland.

Brier was a man of all trades, a “certified sh*tbox operator”, but recently he was a Service Technician/ Mechanic at Serv-pro.

If you didn't know him, give it 5 minutes because then he would be your best friend. He was loud, proud, and full of love for everyone. Always up to something he probably shouldn't be doing. Truly he was a guy to give you the shirt off his back, if he was even wearing one in the first place, or just to be there to help you out. He was hardworking, but always up for a crazy adventure with his friends, a true definition of Nanjemoian. Forever he will be Brier MFing Perry.

Brier is predeceased by; his grandfather Lance Perry. He is survived by his beloved parents, His big brother Clayton Perry, “favorite” sister; Abigail (Mike) Cecchini, baby brother Everett Perry, loving girlfriend Kaitlyn Dunn, along with a numerous close relatives and so many caring friends, that he loved and appreciated so very much.

Visitation will be held at Raymond Funeral Services chapel from 2pm-4pm and 6pm-8pm, on August 20th, 2024.

In lieu of flowers the family asks donations be made to Abigail_Perry_35, Venmo. Please Join the family on August 23rd, at Scotts Bar II for fellowship to honor Brier's life.

“ We met Brier years ago. He helped my husband during hard times. We both have physical limitations and Brier was the muscle. Brier never complained or slacked off. We were impressed with his work ethic. He is a testament to his family. We are deeply sorry for the loss of Brier to his family and friends. I pray they find solace in their memories.
