“ To Doris' Family,

I am numbed by this news !!! It was just yesterday Feb 15 2017 when I thought of Doris and I called her home, no answer. So I called the post office who confirmed the PO BOX was no longer. I knew in my heart something was wrong. So I googled Doris -only to learn the dreadful news. Doris would order pantyhose from me over the years.

www.glogoverhosiery.com and I would personally ship to Doris always enclosing a tea bag of calmness because she often shared her days were met with pain. I thought her cup of tea would add a smile. My heart bleeds with her absence. Doris' soul is unmatched. !!!

May Doris' heaven be in its highest form of purity.

Amen.

Lovingly,

“ My Mother Linda is married to Arnold Hutchinson. Doris' nephew. From the first time I met her she insisted my children and I refer to her as "Aunt Doris" She was charming and witty and full of life and laughter. I looked forward t her visits to my Mom and Hutch's house in South Carolina. She was an unforgettable presence and a light to this world. She will be missed. Rest In Peace Aunt Doris. Love From, Lori, Dylan, Travis, Rhiannon and Naomi.
