“ I'm very sorry that Patsy has passed away. I will always remember the times when I was much younger and would visit Patsy and Francis at their home in LaPlata along with Aunt Weedie, Maurice, Mama, sister Kathy and brother Billy. She and Francis always welcomed us in their home. I would sometimes visit with her when I drove to Maryland from Myrtle Beach. The gracious lady will be missed by many! I will always remember Patsy! Sympathy goes to her all of her family.

“ Aunt Patsy was unique and very special. I loved staying with her while my parents went out on a Saturday night because she would let me run up and down Hawkins Gate Road with Elaine and Barbara. She let me be a kid and have fun. And she was good at keeping my secrets. She hosted my bridal shower in her beautiful new home and what a spread it was. RIP Aunt Patsy. Joan Goldsmith Bryan
