

Edward Wallace Gail

May 16, 1926 - May 20, 2017

Edward Wallace Gail, age 91 of Charlotte Hall, Maryland (formerly of Louisville, Kentucky), died suddenly on May 20, 2017 at University of Maryland Charles Regional Medical Center in La Plata, MD.

Edward was an accountant for 40 plus years with different companies. He was of the Catholic faith and a member of the Masons and the Moose Lodge. He loved sports, including softball, Pittsburg Steelers football, and the Kentucky Derby horse racing. He most enjoyed getting up in the morning, reading his newspaper and having his coffee and a smoke on his pipe.

He was the son of George Gail and Catherine Bowman Gail. In addition to his parents, he was also predeceased by his daughter, Sharon M. Clemmons and his grandson, Brad Jenkins.

He is survived by his sons, Edward W. and Matthew H. Bellina; his daughters, Lori J. Gail and Andrea R. Jenkins; seven grandchildren; and six great-grandchildren.

Funeral Services and Interment are private.

Memorials are asked to charity of choice.

Tribute Wall

“ Edward Wallace Gail

October 08, 2023 at 10:45 PM

“ Edward Wallace Gail

October 04, 2023 at 03:12 PM

“ It was an honor to get to know Mr. Gail. It was was humbling and heart warming to get to watch his daughter Andrea how she sacraficed herself with unending patients and kindness. May God pour a glory of blessings over the whole family♥

Robyn Triscari - May 29, 2017 at 02:02 AM

“ Robyn Triscari lit a candle in memory of Edward Wallace Gail

Robyn Triscari - May 27, 2017 at 08:34 AM

Missed and never forgotten many blessings of peace for his family♥

Robyn Triscari - May 27, 2017 at 08:37 AM