

Edward "Mark" Adams

March 2, 1971 - January 6, 2021

Edward "Mark" Adams, 49, of La Plata, Maryland, died of COVID-19 on January 06, 2021 after a long four-week fight, including two weeks in the COVID ICU. Born on March 02, 1971 in Baltimore, Maryland, he was the son of the late Thurston "Bud" Adams, Jr. (Carol) and Carol Baseley (W. Davis) of Fleetwood, Pennsylvania. He is survived by his sister, Stephanie Germano of Reisterstown, Maryland and his wife, Mary Rizzo.

Mark graduated from Dulaney High School in Cockeysville, MD and George Mason University in Fairfax, VA. He then dedicated his professional career to selling and installing stone products. He was the co-owner of Belair Road Supply Co., Inc, headquartered in Baltimore, MD. Mark was also the sole owner of Craftmark Stone Veneers, LLC, in La Plata, MD.

Mark was an avid motocross rider and served as past president and life member of the Southern Maryland Dirt Riders Club. He often raced at Budds Creek Motocross Park as well as helping to organize events there. He gained many close friends through the sport and will be greatly missed by many.

A private family service will be held later in the spring.

Please feel free to leave condolences and memories on Mark's Tribute Wall.

“ I love the story of how Mark and Bud were on a racetrack as a gift with cars. Bud told the story with such glee with Mark hearing him describe how he passed Mark on the track and gave Mark some "sign language " to see out of Bud's rear window 🤪 lol!. It was so funny to hear Bud describe his moment of joy passing Mark on the race track!
