“ I loved all my aunts, but Eleanor, won the blue ribbon of my heart. I could never forget all the kindness and patience she showed toward me and all her family. She invited me to come spend a summer and work with her neighbor, Wade Whitson, who became my father-in-law some years later. The job didn't pay much, but the "fringe benefit" of a wife has been great. I bet not many kyoung men met their wife through an aunt that loved them and invited them to live with her. Thanks to my special Aunt and all her family. I love you all sincerely. Bobby Fultz

“ My heart goes out to you in your time of sorrow. My mother, Eleanor's only "living" sibling, is deeply saddened by the loss of her sister and my precious Aunt Eleanor. My Mom remembers the day her baby sister was born. It was hard for her to believe that her Mother had a little baby. My mother, Elsie, was less than 5 years old. She wants all of Eleanor's family to know that her love and prayers are with you.

“ Sorry for your loss. Praying that God comforts your hearts with His peace and memories. May the treasured memories displace the sorrow.

Remembering her cheerful spirit and the fun we had together playing in your backyard as she watched us from the kitchen window, and the baseball games with our families at the park. Together we had enough for two teams!
