“ This is Vince, I'm sharing this tidbit as it is true Betty Ryan. During dinner some years back I casually asked Betty to throw me a piece of chicken; should've said pass me some chicken.. I'm glad her aim was off as I watched a chicken wing soar into the air and miss me, but not by much. She thought this was the funniest thing. Truth be told, so did I. Will miss you Bet.

“ I have a few memories I would like to share with you. When we were young we use to go to his public pool on 23rd Street in NYC. There was this life guard who she knew who needed one more person to save to earn something. She jumped in the pool pretended she as drowning, so he jumped in right way. When he realized it was her, he threw her back into the water. She got a kick out of this. Other one is the St. Vincent's Dance in NYC. We use to love them . We enjoyed double dating too. There was a time when she came over almost every weekend with Michele to paint some plaster, We would interact with each other, and have fun My children would join us and paint little things.. There were times she would come over unexpected and surprise all of us. The first time she got her license she drove to our house without hesitation, When my mother in law took sick, she took time out of her life to come over and care for her. She loved my mother in law. . She was a trooper and a brave one too. A beautiful soul, a beautiful sister and a beautiful friend. You have left an emptiness in my heart, You will never be forgotten, Your sister for life, I Love You. Margaret

“ I will miss my Aunt Betty very much! She was my 2nd mother and my Godmother. Throughout my life, she was there with love, laughter and good advice. Her strength and determination inspired me and will continue to every day of my life. My family loved and adored her and we will miss her everyday.
