“ To Tim, Chris, Sean and families: Liz was my buddy cafeteria assistant for the many years we worked at Gwynn Park HS. We laughed a lot, she was so easy to talk with and we tried to 'save' the world during those morning coffee breaks. She was sweet with a steady and caring personality. Liz loved to talk about her 'Tim' and children/grandchildren and loved and adored them. Liz was always sharing something--generous with her possessions, always mindful of those who might be in need. She was a fantastic cook and shared her recipes whenever asked. I am so much richer for having known Liz. I know that she loved the Lord, our God, because we talked about that.
My sincere sympathy to the family. God has called her home.

“ My name is Chris Brown and I am the neighbor of Sean Temko and Marya Cawley. I have met Liz on a few occasions and the one thing that I remember was how soft spoken and pleasant of a woman she was to be around. She had a smile on her face every time I saw her and she was so warm and welcoming. I know how much she was cared for and loved because I can see it through her son. God has a place in his heart and home especially for you. God Bless you Liz.

“ I remember way back, when ELizabeth and I were young and crazy. We would jump in her little VW and go...go...go. We always had so much fun. We never got into trouble but just had a lot of wonderful times together. Those were the glory days! We both worked at the local soda fountain. There was never a dull moment. Elizabeth always had a wonderful sense of humor. As she and I talked about old times just a short 2 weeks ago, she reminded me that I introduced her and Tim, you can see how well that worked out, they were married for 50 years. She was my matron of honor at my wedding. Even though we lived so far apart in these last years, I will miss this true friend!

“ Tim, Chris, Sean, and Family,
We are so sorry.....we will miss Lizzie so much. She was very special and a wonderful person. There is another Angel up in Heaven now. We will always be thankful that Lizzie became part of our family. She was a special sister and aunt to us. We love you, Lizzie!
Love,
