

Ellsworth Lew, Jr.

December 19, 1963 - August 1, 2012

Ellsworth James "J.R." Lew, Jr. of Waldorf, MD died on Wednesday, August 1, 2012 in Sommerville, WV. He was 49 years old.

Mr. Lew was a senior network administrator and facilities security officer at Applied Integrated Technologies in Greenbelt, MD and was a Retired Non-Commissioned Airborne Officer with the United States Army where he received the Meritorious Service Medal, Army Commendation Medal, the Southwest Asia Service Medal, and numerous other medals. He served in the Desert Storm Desert Shield Operation. He was also a member of St. Basil Roman Catholic Church in Pittsburgh, PA. He enjoyed riding motorcycles, he was a craftsman specializing in wood working, and loved fishing. He was a family man who loved to tell jokes. His favorite shows were the Deadliest Catch, Swamp People, and Deadwood. He loved to work with computers and other technical devices and was known as Mr. Lew to all the neighborhood kids who always came to him for fix-ups for basketballs and hoops, football, and other things that needed mending. He bought treats for the kids and trick-or-treat at his house was year-round. He was a wonderful loving father and husband. He will surely be missed. Many thanks go to PFC Upshaw of the Charles County

Sheriff's Department for her exceptional support.
