“ I remember my Sister, Louise, as second mother and the friendship we enjoyed. Louise liked to travel, the beaches on Chesapeake Bay & Ocean City, MD. We had a lot of family meals at her home, including our parents, Brother Redtop with his children & visits with Brother George & his family. Dad used to save pennies for the Poker nights at Louise & Marion's home. They often took their children & Dad drove Mom, me & Sam to Stevenson's Bakery for tea cookies & pies or cakes, part of the traditions we shared growing up. In the summer, she liked to get Chesapeake Bay Crabs to feast on. In winter months we would go to Main Avenue in Washington, DC for seafood. I remember in my childhood, during WWII Louise, George & Redtops teen friends gathering in the basement of our parents home to dance to records. Louise & I did a special rendition of a sister's act, dancing. She also loved ice skating in the winter, along with other sports she enjoyed year round. She was an avid Redskin's Football fan. She could pick winning Lottery numbers. Not in my genes. I remember going to the Rosecroft Race Track to watch the horse races with her & Marion. She was a true family woman, ready to help in any way she could. Never forget the night at a rental cottage at Breezy Point when Dad "kicked the bucket"! Or the night it began to rain & Redtop & Elwood were sleeping on the screened porch. She got up & turned the lights on to see both of them in their skivvies. Elwood's comment, "You sure caught us with our pants down". He loved to tease her because he knew he could get a come backmost of the time. She gave a lot of love.
