“ Emma Lou was a very thoughtful person. Every year she would send Richie and I an anniversary card. She would also call to tell us happy anniversary. I enjoyed talking to her when she called. We were able to go on a trip to Williamsburg with her and Gerry. We stayed overnight and went to a theatre that they sang different country songs. It was great and we all enjoyed it. It is a memory that we hold very dear to us. Emma Lou will be missed but we know that she is in a better place with those that she loves. Rest In Peace and know that we all love you. So sorry she has passed. I had lots of fun with her over the years. She was always thinking of a sewing project for me to do for her around the house. The last one I did was in the bed room. Will miss seeing her at the fair. Robin Boswell
