“ In the '60s and '70s, the Long family had the good fortune of living across the street from the Macogay family on Belmont Dr. One of my favorite memories is looking out from my bedroom window late one Christmas eve and watching dear Mr. Macogay carrying giant bags from the trunk of his car to his house. Santa had just arrived for Kim, Craig, Debbie, Michele and Gene. Mr. and Mrs. Macogay had the house full of love and laughter. They've never left my heart and I'll always thank them for that. My deepest condolences and may God Bless you all. Thanks for the memories ❤️ (June) Lynn (Long) Cox
