“ I remember as kids David always knew how to make us laugh. I spent a large portion of my childhood with Andy Robby and Adam. Sometimes as kids do we would get feisty with each other. Instead of getting mad at us David would find someway to break up the tension and make us laugh.

“ The true test of a good person is how much you are missed when your gone. The combination of knowledge and the willingness to help anyone when they're in in need is what Dave was about. He will be missed.
