“ My connection with, and memories of, the Atchinson family goes back a very long way. All the way back to the fifties. Eva Atchinson was very instrumental in helping my Mother get thru a very tough time. They and their families, remained friends for all these years. We, as a family, owe the Atchinson family a great deal of thanks and appreciation for all their assistance during those early years. Eva was responsible for getting us kids into summer camp and many more functions mostly unavailable to poor kids in those days, thereby giving our Mother a much needed rest. Evelyn was very much like her Mom. Always helpful, always concern about others. Always putting others first before self. I am very saddened about our loss, yes, our loss, for it is truly a loss for everyone that was fortunate enough to have known Evelyn. Sleep well Evelyn. May God bless you and give comfort to your husband and children during their time of need and also to the whole Atchinson family.
