“ RIP "Aunt" Evelyn. After not having seen you for so many years, we met again when you and Mayme [mom] shared living at CCNRC. I got to visit and spend a little time with you.

You offered to take care of mom for us during her illness. I will always have a special place in my heart for you. You're with the Angels now. Love and Rest in Peace.

“ Evelyn Coombs.....just to hear the name or see that smilin' face. It brings an immediate thought to mind of Evelyn really being a cornerstone here in the Pomfret Community. I remember her from a very young age. Wow, wasn't the Old Pomfret Post Office a throw back in time. Loved picking up the mail at the Old Post Office, even our sons were able to have the opportunity to visit Evelyn there. She would hold the mail during inclement times and make sure someone of us here on the farm would take responsibility to deliver to our neighbors. Evelyn will always be remembered, she is a part of our Pomfret Community history! May you rest in peace, Evelyn! Ron and Peggy Gregory

“ Dear sweet lady, may she rest in Peace...always loved chatting with her at the Post Office! 🇺🇸

Sandie Huntt - February 16, 2015 at 10:40 AM

“ She was my first employer...I babysat for her and Pop when they lived in what is now the McGuire home across from Huntt's. I believe there were two apartments and Beulah and Harold lived in the other one. She always treated young people with so much respect; she would ask about my school, etc., and was truly interested and encouraged me how important it was to get a good education. As an very young person (12), she was my Older Best Friend. Yes, she was a great lady.
