As well as always coming to visit Jody through her being sick this past two years. It's meant more than you know. I am going to miss Aunt Lorraine's smile and that personality of hers, she kept things light and bright when it was needed the most. We are here if you need anything at all. RIP Aunt Lorraine ❤️

“ My all time favorite memory of Aunt Lorraine was the night we went crabbing on our yearly camping trip. Her and my mother got, ummm shall we say "Tippy". We were all laughing watching them try to bring in the crabs. Our times at the Ranch Club when we were kids are some of my all time favorite memories. I will miss her so much. Love you always Aunt Lorraine.

“ such a great woman, treated me like family when I was hanging around back in the day. She was sweet enough to come get me out of jail after I got me and Donny in trouble. Always felt like home when I was there.
