

Frances MacDonald

December 1, 1913 - January 9, 2009

Frances Newton MacDonald, 95, of Washington, DC, died January 9, 2009, in Washington, DC.

Mrs. MacDonald was a homemaker in Washington, DC, where she lived with her sister, Katy Owens. She loved her family, traveled abroad, and lived overseas in Panama . She was an EEG Technician and a HAM Radio Operator for years. This last summer, she flew to Barrow, Alaska to visit the Arctic. She was the widow of the Very Rev. Malcolm Richard Mac Donald, a priest of the Episcopal Church.

Born December 1, 1913, in Bala Cynwid, PA, she was the daughter of the late Roberts Leinau and the late Alice Keim Leinau.

Predeceased by her parents and her husband, Rev. Malcolm R. Mac Donald.

Survived by daughters, Heather Svika of Riverside, CA; and Kathleen Fischer of Logan, UT; son, Rev. Dr. David R. Mac Donald, Rector of Christ Church "Old Durham", Nanjemoy, MD; sister, Katy Owens of Washington, DC. Also survived by numerous grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

Funeral Services and interment will be in California officiated by her son, Rev. Dr. David Mac Donald.

Local Arrangements by Raymond Funeral Service, P.A., La Plata, MD.

Tribute Wall

“ Frances MacDonald

October 08, 2023 at 10:45 PM

“ Frances MacDonald

October 04, 2023 at 03:12 PM