Gabrielle “Gabbie” Nicole Wareham

April 4, 1998 – September 5, 2025

The world became a little dimmer on September 5, 2025, when Gabrielle Nicole Wareham—known to many as Gabbie, Goobie, or GabbieNikkiHamHam—passed away at the young age of 27.

Born in La Plata and raised in Port Tobacco, Gabbie lived her life with a spark that was impossible to ignore. She worked as a legal assistant for Scott Law Group in La Plata, where her sharp mind and strong work ethic made her a trusted colleague and friend. But beyond her career, Gabbie’s true joy was in the people and moments she cherished most.

If you were looking for her on a sunny afternoon, you’d often find her out on the water, soaking in the peace. On weekends, she loved cheering on her beloved Redskins, laughing through football Sundays with the same passion and loyalty she gave to the people she loved. Nights out were never ordinary with Gabbie—she had a way of turning something as simple as “halves of shots” at a local bar into memories her friends will never forget.

Gabbie had a gift for making people feel like family. She is survived by her parents; Peggie Willett, Kellie and Rickey Sexton. Her grandparents; Thomas Deppe, Terrance and Cynthia Wareham. Sisters; Jamie Gross(Mike), Stephanie Tilley(Lee), Tabatha Wareham(Anthony), Madelyn Sexton, her sister-in-law Brandi Ransom. As well as numerous other family members and friends. She now joins in eternal rest with her father Craig Wareham, her grandparents Cecelia Krahling, Jean Hardesty and William Willett and brother James Tilley Jr.

Though her time here was far too short, Gabbie's laughter, warmth, and fearless love for life will continue to ripple through the hearts of those she leaves behind. She will be remembered not only for the things she did, but for the way she made everyone around her feel—seen, loved, and celebrated.

A celebration of Gabbie's life will be held on Friday, September 19th from 5-7pm at Raymond's Funeral Home. Family and friends are invited to gather, share stories, and honor the unforgettable spirit of a woman who will never be forgotten.
