“ Man, simply crazy. I stayed at the hotel Gayle worked at for 6 months and saw her just about everyday throughout. There were those days I'd get back from a rough day and Gayle was there putting a big smile on my face, days I was cooking on the grille in 40° weather and Gayle would go out of her way to come out and chat for a good while. Although I knew her for a short period of time I looked forward to seeing her everyday. To you Gayle, thank you for being there when times were tough for me, and helping me get through while I was away from my loved ones. I will forever remember you!

“ I am very sorry to hear that Ms. Gayle passed away. I met Ms. Gayle a few weeks before she passed. She was very kind to me. I came into the hotel needing a room. It was a Tina Turner moment for me, because I had my purse stolen. I was able to pay for the room, but I did not have the usual identification or credit card. I was really worried that I would be turned away.

Instead there was Ms. Gayle who listened to my story. When I was finished, the first thing she asked me was whether I was okay, not twenty questions to prove my identity. Her kindness gave me reassurance that there were good people around. She helped me pull back from the inclination to think that people are rotten and only out for themselves.

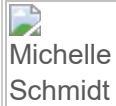

We stood in the lobby of the hotel for at least 20 minutes chatting about everything from personal safety to the “good old days” when you knew everyone in the neighborhood and could stop and give someone a lift if they were walking.

I had intended upon returning to see Ms. Gayle when I was near the hotel because I pass there frequently. I felt that I had made a new friend. I thanked her on the day that I checked out of the hotel, but I am really sorry that I did not get a chance to stop in and thank her again or leave a treat. I comfort myself with the thought that God must have needed his angel back.

My sincere condolences to the family. Although I have never met any of you, I do know that you are hurting from the loss of a very warm and special person.

“ Joe and to the entire Wells and Schuhart families, my deepest condolences and prayers during this time. Gayle was definitely a free loving spirit, loved her family, a good laugh, loyal to her job and always always ready for fun. It's hard to imagine that she's actually gone from this world. Rest easy Gayle until WE all meet again.

“ GAYLE, MY YOUNGER COUSIN WILL BE REMEMBERED FOR HER KINDNESS AND THE ENERGY SHE HAD THAT LITE UP A ROME, HER DEVOTION TO HER MOTHER,RUTH, SHE WAS MY DAD,FRANCIS'S, BABY SISTER AND THE LAST OF THEIR FAMILY. GAYLE WAS BORN IN 1968,THE YEAR THAT I GRADUATED FROM HIGH SCHOOL. EVEN AS A SMALL CHILD, GAYLE WAS ALWAYS LAUGHING AND DANCING AROUND AND HAVING FUN. SHE WAS INVOLVED IN ALL OF OUR DRURY FAMILY OCCASIONS OFFERING TO HELP IN ANYWAY SHE COULD IN THE WEDDINGS, BIRTHDAYS AND SADLY THE FUNERALS. WHEN THE MUSIC STARTED,GAYLE WAS THE FIRST ONE ON THE DANCE FLOOR, GESTERING FOR US TO GET UP AND DANCE WITH HER. OUR FAMILY FOR THE MOST REALLY LIKED TO DANCE AND JUST ENJOYED BEING TOGETHER AND HAVING FUN. GAYLE WILL BE FOREVER CARRIED IN OUR HEARTS AND THOUGHTS. HAVING GAYLE IN OUR FAMILY WAS A JOY AND LOSING HER IS A GREAT LOSS. REST IN PEACE,MY DARLING.

“ There is an old saying "A person actually dies twice. Once the day their soul leaves this earth and another the last time their name is spoken"

I have no doubt this wonderful lady will live on for years to come through the funny lovely stories that will be told and retold. It was a true pleasure to be in Gayle's company. Rest in peace lovely lady.
