

George Curtis Bowie II

September 9, 1952 - December 8, 2025

George was the youngest brother and last surviving brother of 9, Billy, Bobbie, Bubbles, Buddy, Jerry, Johnny, Leo, Sparkie.

George was married to Kissie for over 50 years and they built generations where not only raised their children Kathi, Curtis, Joann, Denise, Jackie, Jen. They were raising their granddaughters Ashlee, Jamie, Melissa as their own.

George and Kissie have cared for every child that has come to the property and they absolutely loved and adored their grand and great grand babies.

George worked as a painter for over 30 years and had his hands in all kinds of projects in those years including building his house and garage with his bare hands.

George loved classic cars and motorcycles since a child and was always working on a project with one of his loyal friends Ronnie, Nolan, EO, Jamie (Nephew) and Scruffy usually right beside him.

He was a simple man, strong minded, very opinionated and he was going to tell you exactly how he felt. He gave everything he could to his family and every child that entered his house.

He built that property he was so proud of, and always said anyone in need would have a place to lay if needed. Through the years him and his wife Kissie took countless other's in when struggling themselves still made them a safe place to call home.

George was the protector, the voice of wisdom, his love showed through his eager to spread knowledge, his hard work for family and the way he melted the second he had his babies in his arms.

George and Kissie have spent over 50 years together on earth and after only 19 days apart they are now reunited in heaven with their son Curtis and daughter Jackie.

I was just thinking about the Bowies and did a search and was sad to see of the passing of both Kissie and George. I have very fond childhood memories of the Bowie family and of the love and kindness they shared. R.I.P.
