

George H. Jones Jr.

December 1, 1931 - July 3, 2024

George H. Jones, Jr. entered into Eternal Rest with Our Lord on Wednesday, July 3, 2024, with his loving wife, Anna and family by his side in Maryland.

Born December 1, 1931 to George H. Jones Sr. and Caroline (Haddock) Jones.

George served his country in the US Navy during the Korean War from 1950-1954 on the USS Tarawa CVS-40. He attained the rank of Yeoman Second Class E5.

For many years, he was active in the Shamokin community. He was a member of the Free Mason's and helped his parents operate and manage Edgewood Park, pool, as well as Shamokin and Trevorton Bus Line Co. on Arch St. in Coal Township. Fond memories were made by many families at the park, pool, and lake through many generations. He later owned and operated Yellow Cab in Shamokin, PA.

George is survived by his wife, Anna "Jackie" Jones, sons George Jones III, Craig Lawrence, and Michael Jones. Daughters Sandy Satteson, Susan Krock, Mary Deibler, and Judy Slaby; nieces and nephews, nineteen grandchildren, forty three great grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by sisters, Maude Koch, Mae Brightbill, Grace Alderson-Sock and a brother John Jones, and two granddaughters, Pamela R. Slaby and Jessica Slaby.

There will be no viewing or funeral.

Tribute Wall

“ Hal & Cheryl Coats & family purchased the Simply Elegant Spathiphyllum for the family of George H. Jones Jr..

Hal & Cheryl Coats & family - July 12, 2024 at 05:02 PM