“ tonight 5/19/16, I'm reading about George's death for the 1st time. I was a classmate of George's in Baltimore, in the late 1960s, until 1970. We were very good friends during that time, and enjoyed many "crazy, wacky = interesting times and adventures together. Looking back, I can honestly say that George was a man of integrity, and loyalty. Over the past 46 years, I have thought often and fondly of George.

I can tell you, his family, that I NEVER, and I mean, never, remember anyone who did not like George, and consider themselves lucky to be his friend. I truly miss you, George. Thank you for gifting my life with your presence for four beautiful years.
