Uncle Mack was one of a kind never a sad face always a grin when he saw you but in our case he always reminded me of how I opened my door an closed it fast not knowing it was him as Santa. I will always remember that an he would never let me forget it. We had alot of good times together an no matter how he felt he would always show up. Rip uncle Mack Love J.C. an Tina “ Mack was a wonderful, sweet, generous man. He & my Dad were close friends for as long as I can remember. I will always be grateful for Mack & Helen's continued friendship with my Mom after Dad passed. They visited her at home, when she was in the hospital & several times once she was in the nursing home. Prayers to Helen, Beth, Tammy, Matthew & all of Mack's family. He will be greatly missed by so many.
