“ I am so sorry for your loss. I met Gloria at The Charleston Senior Community. I enjoyed talking with her. She was a character. She would tell me about her driving the school bus. She loved driving the children to school. Gloria will be missed. You are in my prayers.
With deepest sympathy,

Darlene, we are so sorry for your loss. We liked Gloria and remember her fondly. She always seemed to have a good sense of humor and she certainly loved her grandchildren. She was always good to our girls when we were there too.
It's never easy to loose a parent or grandparent but we pray for God to comfort you all. Love you Fred and Sue
