“ Greg saved me from choking when I was a child. I had a fireball stuck in my throat. He turned me upside down and shook me until it dislodged. He was my parents friend and my hero.

So sorry to hear of Greg's passing. Great guy, always such a cut up. Many memories of his friendship before and after marrying Brenda. Still considered him part of our family even after they were no longer married. All around great guy who will be missed greatly by all who knew and loved him. Prayers to Fonda and his family. God Bless each and every one.

If you ever met Greg you would always stay his friend. He was a very special guy. Greg was an honest, kind and loyal friend. God gave him a personality that we will probably never see replicated in any other person. His passing will leave a void in our hearts May God comfort and bless his loved ones at this difficult time.
