

Hans Peter Freimarck

January 10, 1954 - November 5, 2020

Hans Peter Freimarck, 66, of La Plata, Maryland, passed away suddenly after a brief and heroic battle with esophageal cancer on November 5, 2020 at Johns Hopkins Hospital.

Born on January 10, 1954 in Ludwigsburg, Germany, he is the son of the late Aron Freimarck and Lore Freimarck. Hans served in the U. S. Army for 20 years as a Military Working Dog (MWD) handler, master instructor, and trainer. Along with being known across the MWD community as a fierce advocate for his dogs and handlers, he is credited with developing and implementing many of the DoD's K-9 policies still in effect today. Hans later focused on national security in the DC area airports driving critical change throughout explosive dog programs. He enjoyed being with his family, traveling the world with his wife, being a hero for his children and spending time with his working dog brothers and sisters.

In addition to his parents, Hans was preceded in death by his brother Danny Freimarck.

He is survived by his wife, Debra Freimarck; children, Shannon and her husband Ronald Robinette, Jamie and her husband Jesse Schroeder, Justin and his wife Ashley Freimarck, Stephanie and her husband Marshall Calvin; siblings, Aron Freimarck, Ronnie Freimarck, Gary Freimarck, and Sandy Freimarck; 13 grandchildren and one great grandchild.

Per COVID-19 guidelines, masks are required and social distancing is still in place. While the funeral home is operating with limited capacity, we ask that all visitors be mindful of others.

“ It's never the right time to say goodbye.

We will miss you always Daddy. Here is why...

You taught us so much...

To show no fear, to always have fun, to face the day with confidence in ourselves and our heavenly father.

Daddy you were always our stability, always our protector, always our mentor.

You were the arms around us when we cried.

You never looked for or wanted praises ... yet you deserve them all.

You never boasted about yourself, yet always took the opportunity to share our accomplishments.

Daddy you worked so hard, and we will always remember those strong working hands that helped lead us through this life.

Dad you helped us learn that life is not always fair, it can be tough, it can be sad, but we always knew you had our backs. You taught us to stand on our two feet and never rely on anyone, except you. Your love was not always gentle, but it was always true.

There is a thread of you, dad, that runs through each of us.

All of us stand strong when the going gets tough - That comes from you

All of us would give you the shirts off our back - That comes from you

All of us are so passionate that sometimes it is hard to control - That comes from you

Daddy please know that because of you we all understand that life is precious, that we can do anything we are willing to work at, and that you will still always have our backs.

Daddy we hope that you can hear us say one more time that you were and will forever be our superhero, our guardian, our daddy.

Today we are brokenhearted in having to say goodbye to your earthly body... tomorrow we promise to start smiling a little more in honor of you.

Daddy - be at rest and know that to us you will always be the best of us.

If our love could have saved you, you would have lived forever ♡♡

I was one of “Hans dog teams”. We had a lot of fun and good conversations. A great man and a true friend. He will be forever missed.*
