

Harold "Harry" Francis Guerin

February 7, 1926 - June 3, 2015

Harold (Harry) Francis Guerin, age 89 of Waldorf, MD, passed away peacefully on June 3, 2015 at his residence. Harry was born on February 7, 1926 in Brooklyn, NY. He was predeceased by his father, Harold Aloysius Guerin; his mother, Mary Elizabeth Brooks Guerin; and his sisters, Mary Jane Osborne and husband Norman and Patricia Guerin.

Harry attended St. Francis School and became a paper boy for the Brooklyn Eagle at the age of 9 (his favorite job). He joined the Merchant Marines when he was 17 years old during World War II and traveled through Russia, Greece, Italy, Holland, the Philippines, and other places during his tour. He was in on the invasion of Normandy, delivering tanks and jeeps for the troops.

Throughout his life, he had many jobs such as bus driver, NY Harbor tug boats, Otis Elevators, and the Pennsylvania Railroad. He met his beautiful wife, Kathleen June Streppone Guerin from Queens NY, and they had four children. When the railroad folded, he applied for a government job in Washington, DC in 1966 and they moved to MD. Harry worked for GSA as an Elevator Mechanic until he retired. Anyone lucky enough to know Harry has heard his stories and remembers them. His sense of humor was that of a true New Yorker. His love for his wife, children, grandchildren, and great grandchildren is, and will always be, tremendous.

Harry is survived by his loving wife of 60 years, Kathleen June Guerin; his daughters, Vicky Canter, Carol Dawn, Janice Wedding and husband George; his son, Vincent Francis Guerin; his grandchildren, Harry Canter and wife Crystal, Kenny Canter and wife Erin, Rachel Bean and husband Michael, Kathleen Guerin, June Link and husband JC, Patrick Guerin, Michael Guerin, and Francis Wedding; and his great grandchildren, Isabella, Dominick, Brooklyn, Ava, Audrey, Mitchell, and baby Abigail.

“ a memory..there are many but the one I will never forget is how your dad taught me to change a tire by making me do it in 100 degree weather too. He told me he could but I would never learn if he did it for me. That was the start of my long career in auto repair, along with stopping to help change their tires along the road. It's funny how a simple act of kindness goes remembered. Many a time your dad would defend us when we stayed out longer than we were supposed to. I pray for strength for all of you. Vicky, Carol, Vince and Janice, you all hold a special place in my heart always. Love you all, Melissa (Oberman) Smith
