“ Harold Oakes was a wonderful guy! After my husband's injury in 2008, Harold drove him around in his taxi for years. He enjoyed our holiday decorations. Just the other day, I put the angel he brought me in a prominent shelf in the dining room. He was like part of our family, always upbeat, always helpful!

“ When my brother (Gene) and I were kids and we would go out as a family, our parents would always hold hands (walking, movies, etc..). Gene and I would roll our eyes to each other, because none of our friends parents would do that.

When Mom passed away 4 years ago, Dad said that one of the things he missed most was just holding Mom's hand. One of the things I think about is now Dad and Mom are now holding hands in God's house.
