“ I remember meeting Helen and her family. It was a special time in the entire family's lives. She was so loving and caring toward everyone she met. She always had a smile on her face with a warm greeting and love in her heart. Though, I was not around allot, I will always cherish the memory of being around her and her family. Helen is with her husband in heaven and they are having a wonderful time pain free and laughing allot together and anyone else who is with them.
