“ Mr. Clagett was a nice gentleman. I bought my first house through him. He had bought from my previous seller and I remember coming in to pay my last payment and he said, "I don't show you owe anything" I then told him I had been keeping an amortization myself and he said, "Thank you, I've never had anyone come in here and say they owe me" and I told him that is how I was raised and we both chuckled about it. He was also good friends with my Uncle Byrd Raby, as well. RIP Mr. Clagett

I know of Mr Claggett through my late neighbor Kenneth Jones of Temple Hills. According to Ken they worked together on many home sales back in the day. I met him several years ago at the Annual Home Oyster Dinner. I arranged for them to talk about the Old Days. Another of The Greatest Generation! Ed Reisman, Temple Hills, Maryland

“ I am so sorry to hear the sad news. No matter who you talk to, if you mention Accokeek, Manning Clagett's name would always be mentioned too. I think he was the pillar of Accokeek. I am related to him on my mom's side of the family. Her name was Carolyn "Tweeter" Clagett Middleton. My thoughts and prayers are with the family during this very sad time .

“ My Dad, Bob Pitcher, considered Manning Clagett to be his best friend. I grew up watching them work side by side in the Hardware Store and the Realty. I was fortunate to work with the Clagett family while in high school and learned a lot about appraisals. I still consider it one of the best jobs I ever had! I also learned a lot about Mr. Clagett's character and generosity. Many people came into his office and walked out with a hand shake agreement about their rental or money to pay their bills during hard times. Mr. Clagett never turned anyone away and I never heard a negative statement or bad word about anyone or anything. Just a quiet smile or a little chuckle. Accokeek was a much better town because of Mr. Clagett. I also witnessed a genuine love between him and his dear wife, Chris, which extended to their children and grandchildren. May God grant him eternal rest.
