“ I am so sorry to hear the sad news. I met Howard at the Waldorf Senior Center. We played bingo at the same table every Wednesday and Thursday. He was quite the gentleman and I remember that he collected quarters for his grandchildren. He loved his family and his special companion, Hazel. They were so good for each other. Hazel, you and the Nolan family are in my thoughts and prayers during this really sad time.

“ "Uncle Howard" was a true friend and mentor for me! As a young man renovating houses on Capitol Hill in the late 70's he "took me in" and shared his knowledge and more importantly his wisdom. Howard was a gentleman, and I will always remember him with great admiration and fondness. My condolences to all the family,

“ I assume that this is the man I knew as a child. The age is right and if he grew up in Anacostia and attended Ketcham Elementary School, I remember him for an act of kindness. If he is the one, he went by the name of "Leo". A rather tough kid, he stepped in and stopped several boys who were bullying me. I was just a skinny little kid who never forgot either what he had done nor his name. May he rest in peace.

Yes, that would be my dad. Thank you for sharing that story from his childhood. He used to tell us he often skipped school. I am glad he was there that day.
