I will truly miss my Sister in spirit! She was so loving and passionate about friendships, family and first and foremost her relationship with GOD! I am completely shocked to just find out my Sister in CHRIST is gone. I'm glad we always expressed our love for one another whenever we saw each other...just didn't know the last time I saw her would be the last time. I am praying for all of her beautiful children whom I've had the privilege of knowing and watching grow up. LORD watch over this family as only YOU can. Thank you GOD for giving me the blessed opportunity to know and love Irene! Rest in peace my Sister!
