“ Isabelle "Belle" the following note is from my baby sister Lola Lane Carraway Wagnitz, who your daddy raised for a number of years during the time our mother was very ill and our daddy in the hospital for 22 years. and sent me this note on Bell. She lives in Texas and can not travel very well, just all part of living but makes the best of things. Your nephew Edward A. Carraway

Grand daughter of your Daddy writes when I notified her----Lola Wagnitz Ok brother ,i will it saddens me ,, you know I lived at granddaddys with Lillian, bell Harriet, Ssue was just a little tiny baby. I remember us a £ittle kids doing all kinds of things together as children, but cliff wasn't born yet, and I never saw him. Thank you for the news as unwelcome as it is tho, it's a fact of life , life goes so fast , but some don't think of it that way,

And she wrote more ----Thank you cliff, it's really my uncle cliff isn't it, you are our uncle, I loved granddaddy he was good to me and protected me always, a lot of childhood history there with my granddaddy, I hope he was the same with you !! Love to you and your family from my heart. .. Granddaddys name was is very s distictive, they should make a correction in print stating that. I love the named in our family line !! “ I'm going to miss you so much aunt Belle. I'm going to miss coming to your house every summer. I'm going to miss our phone conversations & both of us crying for my mom. I'm going to miss everything! But I know in my heart I have 2 of the best angels standing over me now, my mother & you. I will be forever missing you both.
