

Jack David Brown

June 16, 1941 - November 6, 2021

Jack David Brown, age 80 of Pomfret, Maryland, passed away on Saturday, November 6, 2021 at his residence surrounded by family. Jack was born June 16, 1941 in Boone, North Carolina to the late Howard and Pearl Brown. Jack was the sixth child of nine. He was preceded in death by sisters, Mozelle Kobel, Lorene Shrimplin, and Jean Miller; and brothers, James Brown and William Brown.

Jack graduated from Appalachian State Teachers College in 1963 with a Bachelor of Science Degree in Social Studies and a Master of Art Degree in Administration in 1964. It was during his college years that he met the love of his life, Connie "Marie" Andrews. They were blessed with 57 plus years of marriage.

Jack was employed by the Charles County Board of Education for 30 years. He began his teaching career at Nanjemoy Elementary, Hughesville Elementary, and Bel Alton High School. Early in his career, he also served as President of the Education Association of Charles County. After three years in the classroom, Jack was promoted to Vice Principal at Malcolm Middle School. From there Jack served as Principal at Bel Alton Middle School for seven years before being named Principal at the newly built Benjamin Stoddert Middle School in 1978. His final years of service in education were as County Hearing Officer, Evening High School Principal, and Summer

School Principal. He retired in 1994.

Having grown up working on his father's sawmill, Jack chose to pursue college rather than join H. H. Brown and Sons Lumber Business. Ironically, later in life Jack found pleasure in cutting firewood and sawmilling and started a side business called Jack's Firewood from 1977-1997. Although sons Jack and Chris did not appreciate the afterschool work and the early Saturday morning wake up calls, Jack instilled in them a sound work ethic.

In 1973, the Charles County Bicentennial Committee approached Jack and asked that he coordinate the writing of a Charles County history. With the help of eight fellow citizens, the book "Charles County Maryland: A History Bicentennial Edition" was completed in 1976 for our country's Bicentennial celebration.

Jack was an active member of Hughesville Baptist Church for 51 years where he served in various capacities. He was also a member of the Sons of Confederate Veterans, Private Wallace Bowling Camp 1400, La Plata, Maryland.

Jack was known for his friendly smile, his generosity to all, and his love for people. Jack was a friend to everyone. He enjoyed his family immensely and cherished their time together. Jack enjoyed singing and was a one-man show with his karaoke machine. He was an avid reader, a life-long Cleveland Indians baseball fan, and he enjoyed playing the board game Sequence. He was known as the "King of Sequence" among his family. He lived by the slogan: "Whatever you do, do your best" and the golden rule: "Do unto others as you would have them do unto you." (Matthew 7:12)

Jack is survived by his wife, Marie; his children, Yolanda Salomon (Jon) of Mount Dora, Florida, Jack Brown of Lenoir, North Carolina, and Christopher

Brown (Kelly) of Nanjemoy, Maryland; his grandchildren, Emily Cordon (Carlos), Caitlin Salomon, Harrison Brown, Jackson Brown, Elaina Brown, Layla Brown, and Lane Brown; brother, Bryan Brown (Brenda) of West Lafayette, Ohio; sisters, Kathy Price of Tulsa, Oklahoma and Patricia Boyd of Columbus, Ohio; sister-in-law, Linda Brown of Coshocton, Ohio; and aunt, Peggy Trivett of Boone, North Carolina. He is also survived by cousins and numerous nieces and nephews.

“ We were so sad to hear of Mr. Brown's death. We sure loved him! And what a character! Al still talks of me playing "cut throat" Sequence with Mr. Brown! Ha! Good memories! And what a singer! We know he is singing praises in heaven to our Lord Jesus Christ! It was an honor to have known him. May the Lord comfort you, Ms Marie and family, at this time of loss. I wish I was there to give you the biggest of hugs. Love Al and Arlene Truhett
