“ As little girls we learned that we could do whatever we wanted. We worked outside in the flowers, in the garden, used tools to fix things, even crawling under the house when the water pump had issues with you. I think that was to scare away the spiders for you though. 😂 We put worms on hooks, took the fish off the hooks and learned to filet the fish. But we could also dress up when we needed to and be little ladies. Although I still preferred the dirt and baggy clothes. Thank you dad for being a great teacher of life.
